Six Declare They Intend To Seek Justice Job Here

Petitions Must Be Filed Before April First To Qualify

Six Truckee residents have filed their declaration of intention to seek the justice of the peace job in Meadow Lake Township, according to County Clerk R. E. Deeble.

This does not necessarily mean that they will file the required petition between March 8 and April 1 to be on the ballot. Under election laws, anyone planning to seek a judicial office must make declaration of intention between February 27 and March 3.

Those who made declaration of intention were Mrs. Ethel Buell, who is the only one of the six thus far to make a public announcement of her candidacy; Fred O. Morris, Albert C. Pfaendler, Hermann L. Owens, Thomas F. LaRocca and Fosten Wilson.

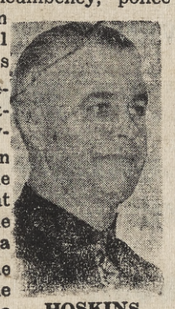
In order to have their names appear on the ballots for the June 6 primary election, all candidates must file the required petitions before April 1, Deeble said. Requests for petitions for township offices must be accompanied by the $10 filing fee, he added.

Hoskins Will Be Sheriff Candidate

Sheriff Richard W. Hoskins of Nevada County has announced his candidacy for re-election at the primary election on June 6.

Hoskins, who took over the sheriff's office January 6, 1947, has revamped the department and has provided his officers with the latest type of police equipment, including a wire recorder and a police camera.

During his incumbency, police radios have been installed in all the department's cars and a remote transmitting and receiving unit has been placed in the office. A recent addition to the department is a teletype machine which ties the office into a state-wide police net.



HOSKINS

For emergency work he has formed an aerial posse and a mounted posse. A ski patrol has also been activated in the Truckee area.

He has instigated a detailed filing system on all prisoners, which includes previous arrests, photograph, fingerprints and an arrest card on which is recorded a detailed description and history of the prisoner.

The official stated that three times as many prisoners have

State Objects To Changing Rim At Lake, Letter Says

Attorney General States Plans Only Tentative For Project

Attorney General Fred N. Howser says the state of California probably would object to any change in the natural level of Lake Tahoe.

The attorney general made the statement in an informal letter to A. M. Barton, chairman of the Lake Tahoe Water Conference Committee. Barton asked the attorney general's office for a ruling on a proposed federal project to draw water off the lake to make the maximum level 6,228 feet. At present, Barton said, the lake may rise as high as 6,229.1 feet and some property owners have objected to lowering it.

The natural rim of the lake, the committee head pointed out, is "something over 6,223 feet in elevation." The level as measured on Monday of this week was 6,224.52.

Although Howser refused to give the committee, which is not an official state agency, an official opinion, he said the propetry owners apparently have a legal right to object to any project which might change the water level.

The state officer said the position of the state, indicated in previous actions, would be to object to the project unless state citizens would benefit substantially.

"The change which is here discussed is merely a tentative proposal and no final plans have ever come to the attention of this office," Howser said. "The project is apparently merely in the stage of speculative discussion and its actual effect can not be definitely foretold without more information as to its details of construction and operation."

The proposed project involves construction of a reservoir on Prosser Creek and a diversion tube of channel from the Truckee River near Truckee in the vicinity of Truckee in the proposed reservoir. As part of project the army engineers wish to cut the rim of the lake sufficiently to install a permanent fixed concrete weir at the elevation of the lowest point of the present natural rim.

The attorney general suggested Lake Tahoe property owners as a group follow developments of the project carefully and take a definite position on the basis of possible benefits or burdens.

Howser's statements were made in a ten page letter, citing laws, agreements and court cases in point. A copy of this letter is on file at the office of the Sierra Sun for the perusal of interested parties.

Truckee Ski Scaffold, Local Landmark, Is Razed; Plan Started For Modern Jump

One of Truckee's most famous landmarks—the 25-year-old ski scaffold at Hill Top Lodge—is gone.

Condemned as dangerous, the structure last Friday was pulled to the ground and dismantled by Crandall Brothers, owners of the property. Rotting timbers which supported the scaffold were reenforced a few years ago in an effort to maintain the pioneer winter sports monument, but recent high winds proved that it was no longer safe as a jump and threatened nearby structures.

The old scaffold, built some 25 years ago, has been the scene of some of the west's most exciting championship jumps in the early days of skiing. Many world renowned jumpers have used the scaffold to set new marks and hundreds of local skiers have gained prominence and training there.

Plans are being formulated to erect a more modern and longer jump so that advanced meets may be held here in the future.

"GAY 90'S" THEME OF HIGH SCHOOL CARNIVAL NIGHT

Tahoe-Truckee Union High School students will present a carnival, dance and Gay Nineties play and review March 25 at the Capitol Hall in Truckee. The purpose is to raise money for publication of the high school annual, "The Chipmunk."

The high school glee club and band will present an old fashioned "mellerdrammer" titled "For His Brother's Crime", to be followed by a musical review.

The theme of the whole affair is the "Gay Nineties". Members of the student body are to be in costumes of the period.

Following the play and review, there will be a dance and carnival. Two booths are to be run by each high school class and the elementary school will furnish one booth.

The entertaining evening will start at 7 o'clock. Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. The public is invited.

WORK IS STARTED ON ROADSIDE SIGN BY LOCAL C. OF C.

Renewed efforts to install a 12 by 20-foot sign west of here, advising motorists they are entering Truckee, will be made by the Truckee Chamber of Commerce in the near future.

A tentative sketch of the sign is being prepared by Cliff and Jack Ellis and will be submitted to the directors at tonight's meeting. Providing weather permits, volunteers from the chamber Saturday will transport the logs required for the proposed rustic sign from Hill Top Lodge, where they were donated, to the site along Highway 40 just west of here. Anyone wishing to assist in the program is urged to contact President Earl Stice.

The chamber at the last meeting also discussed briefly proposals to support two different Highway 40 booster organizations but withheld a decision pending further study of the two apparently conflicting groups.

Airport plans, community advertising and other matters of local importance were discussed by the directors and members with Stice presiding.

Proof of the value of a unified school district in this area is evidenced even in its first year of operation. The business-like methods employed in the administration, the harmony and unity of the school faculties and above all the apparent advancement of the students in academic training all point to a successful and highly efficient system. When we stop to consider the turmoil and divided opinions which made local schools, at least, the subject of public criticism for the past several years and then compare that condition with the present, we must agree that unification, properly administered, has been beneficial. There are naturally improvements to be desired even now, but for its first year, even without the new high school plant and proposed changes in other schools, the system is working smoothly and has made progressive strides beyond expectations.

Any number of important issues are scheduled for the forthcoming elections and unless you are properly registered you will not be able to vote. Be sure you are a registered voter and when the time comes your ballot will go a long way in determining the officers and issues under which we will live during the next four years. You must register if you failed to vote at either the last primary or general election, if you have moved to a new precinct or if you desire to change party affiliation.

Support your Red Cross. Truckee has a big quota to meet and your generous support will be appreciated.

STORM ON SUNDAY ENDS LONG SPELL OF GOOD WEATHER

An unexpected storm, the first to visit this area since February 10, howled over the summit of the Sierra Sunday and left from three to seven inches of snow in the region.

The storm was accompanied by a strong wind and was followed by a cold snap which sent temperatures tumbling to near the zero mark. The brief but severe storm followed more than three weeks of balmy, sunny weather which prevailed all through last month.

Local service stations and garages were taxed to capacity throughout the day installing skid chains as hundreds of motorists visited the area over the weekend to enjoy winter sports and the spring-like weather. The snow was hailed gleefully by the scores of resorts since it brought a desirable blanket to cover the heavy pack on the ground.

Three Officials Are Victims Of Two Car Crashes

State Safety Engineer Is Injured in Collision Near Kingvale

J. W. Vickery, 62, safety engineer for the state department of public works and well known in this area, and C. W. Waite, 55, of the same department, were injured yesterday morning in a headon car collision near Kingvale. The driver of the second car, Neil J. Prunty of Oakland, was cited by State Patrolman William Gautsche for driving without due caution and for being on the wrong side of the road.

Gautsche said Prunty's car skidded on a snowy section of the highway and crashed into the state car.

All of the injured were taken to a Sacramento hospital by the Truckee ambulance. Vickery had chest injuries and a fractured nose and his companion a possible hip fracture. Prunty had only minor hurts.

County Clerk Ralph E. Deeble is recovering from minor injuries suffered when his car went off the highway west of Cisco Friday night at 10 o'clock when the official and a companion, James Oliver of Grass Valley, were returning home from a visit in Truckee.

Deeble told State Patrolman William Gautsche that the lights from an approaching car blinded him on a turn and the car plunged 20 feet into a ravine where it was demolished. Oliver was taken to his home by a passing motorist and Deeble was removed by the Truckee ambulance.

Miss Hecker Is Asking Reelection

Practically on the eve of the anniversary of her 25th year of service to Nevada County, Miss Elma Hecker this week announced her candidacy for re-election to the office of Nevada County treasurer and tax collector at the primary election on June 6. Miss Hecker's first entry in public service as an official of the treasurer-tax collector office took place on June 10, 1925 when she became deputy under William T. Garland.

In sense of experience through years of service, Miss Hecker has one of the top veteran records of county officials. The excellent education of 17 years a deputy particularly fitted her for appointment to her present office on August 4, 1942, following the resignation of the late county treasurer-tax collector, Frank Steel. Her position was confirmed by the voters at the August 25, 1942 election and she was again re-elected in 1946.

Elma Hecker

Popular, accommodating, conscientious, Miss Hecker has not only won the high regard of Nevada Countyans but has received plaudits of state officials for her excellence of office management

North Tahoe

by T. BURROUGHS

And so they were married! reads the little card. Ralph Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tucker, came up last Friday with his bride-to-be, Meda Meyers. From Tahoe Vista, Andy and Alice Sorensen accompanied the couple to Carson to secure the license and on to Gardnerville where the marriage ceremony took place in the Lutheran Church. While Andy and Alice were busy gettting Ralph and Meda married, things were happening at home. They returned to find the house full of company and a delicious turkey dinner under preparation. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Tucker of Napa, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Palmer of Paradise, Ed and Mary Starr of Vallejo were in on the surprise party and so were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Starr, weekend guests of the Henry Tuckers.

The newlyweds have returned to their home in San Carlos where both are employed, Ralph as a carpenter and Meda with a drug company.

Harvey and Pearl Martin returned last Saturday from wintering away from Tahoe and at are at home in one of the Meisenheimer cabins.

Billie Peterson was up from Gardnerville last weekend with the report that that baby brother of his, small son of Blanche Farei, is some guy! Also that Blanche is enjoying the best of health and all are happy.

Will those interested in brushing up on their rusty English but feel too far behind to enter the progressive adult class now going on under the direction of Mrs. D. C. Barnett, please call her for further information? Thank you.

Alice and Bob Murray of Tahoe Estates write they have really been getting around lately. A nice trip to Chico to see Bob's cousin, Sada, who returned with them to Merced via San Francisco. Bob's health continues to improve. However, they will not return to the lake until the possibility of having to shovel snow is pretty slim. Sorrow came to Bob and Alice during the winter. In February, after weeks of debating, they found the courage to have Judy, their beloved boxer, put to sleep. Judy became a fighter during her outdoor hours in the valley. Once the fighting instinct is aroused in this breed of dog, it is seldom subdued and Alice and Bob were afraid that harm would come to others.

You who love your dogs, please know that there is an officer here to pick up stray dogs. Any animal worth keeping is worth caring for. Get your pet a license and give it protection. If there are stray animals around your place and you do not want them, Call Richard Lavery at Brockway 239 who can give you information for contacting the pound man.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the Red Cross drive any sum, large or small, contact Audrey Welch at the drug store in Kings Beach. Audrey has had the money box there for some time but so far not enough contributions in it to rattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of Smith's Coffee Shop at Homewood were up for a few days last week from Glendale where they were wintering. They have plans for renovating their place of business and will be back again soon to get married. Last Saturday they were guests of the F. B. (Pete) Sederbergs for dinner and at The Burroughs later for folk dancing. They had seen Tex Jones, too. Tex really gets around! Sees and knows just about everyone around the lake and where they spend their winters.

There was kiddie's get together at the Andy Sorensen's last Tuesday evening.

Smith will have completer 39 years and seven months in the service with 30 years and six months as supervisor of the El Dorado Forest.

"We were pretty small by comparison in those days," he recalls. "We had four ranger districts but the office had only one clerk. You may get an idea of the way we have grown when I tell you our special use permits in 1920, covering summer homes, resorts on government land, grazing and other special uses totalled 215. We now have 1,829."

and faultless maintenance of accounts and tax roll records.

Activities of the treasurer and tax collector's office, while many and varied and major in importance to Miss Hecker, do not exclude her interest and work from fields of church, civic and fraternal work. At present she is serving as assistant superintendent of Trinity Episcopal Sunday School, is prominent in the circles of that church and is a Sunday School teacher of long record. In affairs of civic nature, beneficial to both community and county, she is particularly active.

That the candidate is held in high esteem by fellow county officers throughout the state is amply reflected in her activities of committee nature with the State Association of County Treasurers. In 1949 Miss Hecker was appointed to serve on the resolutions committee of that body as chairman and was reappointed to that post in 1950. Attending the joint Association of Auditors and Tax Collectors at Long Beach in February, Miss Hecker was also named to serve on the important audit committee of County Tax Collectors.

That Miss Hecker has the interests and welfare of Nevada County and its people decidedly at heart finds reflection in the fact that as a native Nevada Cityan she has spent her entire life time in this county. Understanding and helpful at all times with matters coming to her office, she describes herself as "always being willing to place herself on the other side of the counter" in rendering opinions regarding tax matters or other issues brought to her attention.

In seeking reelection, Miss Hecker offers to review her experience and record for consideration of the voters. If returned to office the candidate pledges a continuance of the smoothly operating and efficient office so well maintained by herself and corps of expertly trained deputies.

been arrested since he took office in 1947 than were taken into custody in the previous four years.

In keeping with the increase in crime in the county, each member of the department has attended various FBI law enforcement schools.

Early in his career as sheriff, Hoskins participated in the apprehension of three men who had taken $15,000 from a Wheatland bank. All but ten cents of the $15,000 was recovered.

Hoskins was born June 30, 1905 in Nevada City and graduated from Grass Valley high school in 1924. An active athlete in high school, he continued in the field of sports and played Coast League baseball with Oakland in 1924 and with San Francisco in 1925. He was a member of the Grass Valley baseball, basketball and football teams for several years and played baseball in the Sacramento Valley League for about twenty years.

Hoskins is married and has three children, a boy and two girls.

Active in several peace officers' and fraternal organizations, Hoskins is sergeant at arms and executive board member of the California Sheriffs' Association and vice president of the Northern California Peace Officers' Association. He also is a member of the War Evacuation Committee. He is past president of the Native Sons of the Golden West, a member of the Grass Valley Lodge of Elks, Madison Masonic Lodge, the Grass Valley Sportsmen's Club and is a past fire chief of the Grass Valley Fire Department.

STORM ON SUNDAY BRINGS END TO SPRING WEATHER

TAHOE CITY— Tahoe area newcomers who have been blissfully referring to the ebbing winter received a jolt Sunday when a run of three weeks of spring-like weather was abruptly broken by a short but intense storm.

Saturday, under clear skies and and a bright sun, skiers and spectators found sun glasses and sunburn lotion essential items of equipment. During the night, the barometer fell and by 3 a.m. Sunday morning, a storm had moved in on high winds. Thunder and lightning, rain and sleet initiated the new day. Precipitation measured at 8 a.m. was .06 of an inch. The precipitation changed to snow until about 5 p.m., snow fall measuring seven inches (.32" water) by that time.

Temperatures for the past week are recorded as follows:

TAHOE SKI CLUB'S SLALOM EVENT DRAWS 80 SKIERS

TAHOE CITY— The first phase of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club's Far West Ski Association Meet was completed Saturday under ideal conditions at Squaw Valley. More than 80 skiers were entered in the men's and women't giant slalom which is one of the longest slalom courses in the west. With fast snow conditions and a bright clear day, the skiers covered the estimated 1¼ miles at top speeds. Trophies for the first three places in the Women's Class A-B and the first three in Men's Class A-B were presented at the dance held by the ski club Saturday night.

Trophies went to Joan Law of Elko with a time of 2 minutes 10 seconds: Donna Nagel, Squaw Valley, 2:25.5 and Susanne Wright of Ski Club Alpine, 2:38.3. Other women contestants in order and their times were Shirley Hayes, Squaw Valley, 2:39.4; Ellen Morgan, Marin, 2:46; Nance Wale, Squaw Valley, 3:07; Shirley Brown, Squaw Valley, 3:38; Jean Buek, unattached, 3:45.3; Kathie Robinson, Squaw Valley, 3:52; Nan Henderson, Squaw Valley, 5:48.

First three places in the men's slalom were taken by Jack Simpson, 1:44.7; Gar Robinson, 1:45.3 and Jack Nagel, 1:53.5, all of Squaw Valley. Other contestants and their times were John Gianotti, Univ of Nevada, 1:55.5; Jim Brehler, Squaw Valley, 1:56; Les Hawkins, U of N, 1:56.2; Wes Kastner, Squaw Valley, 1:56.5; Al Henry Jr., Lake Tahoe, 1:57.8; Art Breuer, Sugar Bowl, 1:58; Leif Sommerseth, unat., 2:00.3; Gordon Butterfield, Squaw Valley, 2:00.4; Wayne Adams, Reno, 2:01; Don Thompson, U of N, 2:04.9; Bob Griffith, unat., 2:05.2; Ray Zeitz, unat., 2:05.3; Dick Merriam, Sugar Bowl, 2:06; Edy Kauphilla, Coll. of Pacific, 2:11.2; Bob Stark, Lake Tahoe, 2:12.1; Sandy Hubbard, unat.., 2:12.9; Dick Springer, Squaw Valley, 2:13.4. Thirty-eight other men contestants completed the course in times up to 3:56.

Officiating at the events were Jack Starratt, Lake Tahoe Ski Club, and Wayne Poulsen, Squaw Valley, starters; Fred Main, J. V. Bartell, Ray Fellows and Floyd Carnell, Lake Tahoe Ski Club, timers; Betty Starratt, J. Stuart and R. R.. Gilbert, LTSC, recorders. Operating the radios were U. S. Forest Servicemen E. E. Boehm and William Curran. Gatekeepers watched the 32 gates in the men's course and 31 in the women's.

After the contest, all contestants were served a lunch at Squaw Valley by the hosting Lake Tahoe Ski Club. At the dance held at Tahoe Inn Saturday night, skiers and meet officials enjoyed social dancing to the music of a multi-piece three-man band. Highlight of the evening was the presentation of the six trophies.

Sunday morning the Lake Tahoe Ski Club postponed until a later date the cross country and jumping events of its meet, scheduled for that day. For three weeks Tahoe had enjoyed spring-like weather. Saturday night, high winds came up, sleet, rain and snow began falling. Club officials and contestants tried to carry on as planned but when wind-driven snow was so thick that no two consecutive markers on the eight mile cross country course could be seen at one time, Club President Oliver Coroña, with the approval of the board of directors and most skiers, postponed the balance of the meet.

Many Placer Officials Seeking Re-Election

AUBURN— Several incumbent county officers in Placer County this past week announced they will seek reelection at the June 6 primary election. These include Francis West, coroner and public administrator; William H. Stephens, auditor; George Lothrop, tax collector; Sam B. Dutton, treasurer; Clayton J. Goodpastor, recorder, and Lillian Rechenmacher, county clerk. None have any announced opposition to date.

The nation's only municipally owned opera house is in San Francisco.

TAHOE RED CROSS AT HALF QUOTA IN FIRST FOUR DAYS

TAHOE CITY— Prospects for another successful Red Cross fund quota realization by Tahoe City are indicated by the returns for the first four days of March, reports Mrs. Phil Geier, chairman of the drive for the Tahoe City area. The quota for Tahoe City in the annual March drive is $1050. Receipts to Saturday, March 4, totalled $511.50.

Mrs. Geier attributes the successes in reaching the quotas in large part to the summer residents without whose generous aid the limited full-time population would find it difficult to attain the goals set. Tentative date by which, it is hoped, the goal will be reached is March 15.

Chris Beavers Observes First Birthdate

Christian Siguard Beavers celebrated his first birthday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Beavers of Redding, on February 24. His father was in charge of the Tahoe Park Ranger Station, USFS, last summer. Chris, as he is better known, also had his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Siguard Ronning of San Bruno, with him to help celebrate the day.

SCHOOL NEWS

CONSERVATION WEEK

—by Mary Ann Tonini

March 7 was the beginning of Conservation Week. The Truckee Elementary School will participate in it. William Curran of the Forest Service has given us ten small ponderosa pine trees to plant around the school building, which should improve its appearance greatly. In the school rooms we shall display different types of woods which we borrowed from the lumber company. We will put articles and compositions on conservation on our bulletin board.

On Wednesday, Mr. Curran and Game Warden Thomas Borneman showed a short moving picture to the pupils, gave talks and answered questions about conservation.

SPELLING BEE

—by Ernest Towler Jr.

A spelling bee was held last Wednesday at the school. Each room took a test of about 100 words. In Mr. Kishbaugh's room the winners were Sonja Rylander and Joel Towler. In Mr. Welch's room the winners were Ernest Towler and Raymond Dixon. The four winners had a test of 100 words. The final winner was Ernest Towler. Sonja Rylander was second, Joel Towler third and Raymond Dixon fourth. The winner will go to Auburn for the county finals. The winner of the Auburn contest will represent the county against other county winners at Sacramento.

MEXICAN PROJECT

—by Louie Ramirez

A new committee for a Mexican market, composed of George Gregory, Ronald Kirby and Rogers Mayo has been formed. They have decided on the size of the market and are going to draw it to scale and make a blueprint. George believes in putting the plans on paper before the building is started. The Mexican house building committee are, Dallis Scofield, Billy Moreland, John Welch and Harold Brown, frame; Eddie Rankin, Roy Arthurs and Jimmie Harris, walls; David View, Barry Phipps, Joe Miller and Barbara Brown, roof. Patsy Smisek and Doris Van Uden are making hauarches for themselves.

Our pottery has received its final painting. Some of the articles made include a miniature metate by Tony Ilardi, a cup by David View and a sombrero by Dallis Scofield. Students have made an Espanol-Inglis dictionary. The committee selected the following as having done neat work, Janice Gray, Roy Arthurs and Barbara Brown.

Patsy Smisek, David View and Tony Ilardi have brought Mexican stamps to put with the Mexican coin collection. Tommy Towler, Janet Allen, Barbara Brown, Jesse Rablin and Ray Roberts have language papers displayed about Mexican homes.

Nat'l Giant Slalom at Sugar Bowl

NORDEN— The National Giant Slalom of 1950 will be held and sponsored by the Sugar Bowl Ski Club this weekend. The course will run from the top of Mt. Lincoln to the base of Sugar Bowl proper. The approximate vertical descent is around 1400. The exact distance, in length, cannot be easily determined because of the winding route the course follows on its descent down the mountain.

Giant slalom is a combination of downhill and slalom. This is a race in which contestants follow a course defined by control flags. The national rules for giant slalom stipulate at least 20 sets of flags and a vertical descent of at least 1,000 feet. A giant slalom combines the speed of downhill with the technical aspects of slalom. It demands that skiers prove their worthiness in both downhill and slalom in one race. In giant slalom contestants travel at a high rate of speed, yet not as fast as in a downhill, although with a great deal more speed than in regular slalom. This demands sound racing intelligence, control, and expert ability to manuever through myriads of control flags while traveling at a high rate of speed.

A giant slalom course is prepared in the same manner as for a downhill race, with an adequate amount of sidestepping and time allowance for practice on the course. The flags which mark a giant slalom are of three colors: red to assist contestants in discovering the best route down the mountain, yellow to warn contestants of concealed dangers and blue is used for control flags and must be placed in pairs through which contestants must pass under pain of disqualification.

The course of the 1950 Giant Slalom is open for practice from March 7 until 4 p.m. March 10. At that time the course will be officially closed until the starting time for the race on Sunday, March 12. On Saturday the course will receive its final preparation, the flags will be placed in their final position and no contestant or official other than the course setter will be allowed to ski through the control flags. Any contestant skiing within 50 feet of any pair of gates or simulating a turn within that distance that corresponds to the turn of the control flags will be disqualified before the race.

An extensive program has been prepared to entertain the visiting racers on Donner Summit during their stay prior to the race. On Wednesday evening there was a competitors and press get together at Donner Summit Lodge. Bud Horak was host to the gathering and free beer and a buffet featured the evening. Thursday afternoon an informal international slalom will be held on the slopes of Donner Ski Ranch. Bud Walton, manager of the Ski Ranch, will provide gluiweinn for the contestants and officials at his new chalet.

On Saturday there will be a meeting of all officials and competitors at the chalet in Sugar Bowl at 5:45. At this session contestants will receive their racing numbers and final instructions concerning the race and course.

Sunday evening at 7:30 a banquet will be held for all contestants and officials at Donner Ski Ranch. Prizes will be awarded at that time to the winners of the 1950 National Giant Slalom.

At present, snow conditions on Mt. Lincoln are ideal for a contest of this type. The snow is spring corn which is always very fast for racing.

The event has attracted an entry list of 79 skiers from six countries. Beside outstanding skiers from all parts of the United States, France, Austria, Sweden, Chile and Canada are represented. Fifty-five men and 24 women are on the contestant entry lists.

The race committee in charge incudes Corty Hill and Hannes Schroll, referees; Jerry Hiatt, chief of course; Merrill Brown Jr., chief timer; Dr. Lorenz Ruddy, John Preston and Gordon Hooley, assistant timers; Max Williamson, interval timer; June Brown, Mary Preston, Carol Fetzer, and Irma Schlesinger, recorders; Al Schlesinger, judge of finish; Edi Aro, starter; Sherman Chickering, assistant starter; Gordon McIntosh, calculator; Frank Campbell, chief flagkeeper; Henry Knutsen, assistant flagkeeper; Jack Marturano and Esther Marturano, course police and ski patrol; Hannes Schroll, Jerry Hiatt and Tony Seelos, forerunners.

National forests included 181 million acres and other public forest land not included in national forests approximately 191 million acres in the United States in 1949.

SUPPORT SOUGHT FOR HOUSE BILL TO AID FORESTS

A house bill before Congress to develop water resources and recreational facilities in the national forests is meeting with local approval and is expected to receive the endorsement of the local chambers of commerce and other civic organizations.

The bill would authorize the secretary of agriculture to institute a five-year program of improvement and conservation designed to increase the public service of the national forests, according to Guerdon Ellis, supervisor of the Tahoe National Forest, who is urging consideration of the bill.

Funds appropriated under the authority of the act would be used for the development and maintenance of water resources and recreational facilities and calls for an annual appropriation of from two to four million dollars.

Ellis points out that the Tahoe National Forest is particularly situated to benefit from the funds for recreational use, since it is close to well populated areas and offers climatic and scenic advantages which in many areas are still virtually untapped.

He points out that there has been no real provision made for meeting the increased financial drain in maintaining the public campgrounds and other facilities for which an increased demand is made in this region. The supervisor urges endorsement of the measure designated as HB 6465.

"We are very happy the incident did not result in a tragedy, and through your office, would like to extend thanks to all who participated in the rescue, and also those standing by to help."

2200 PINE TREES USED TO PLANT OLD BURN AREA

As a fitting commemoration of Conservation Week, officials of the Tahoe National Forest this week planted 2200 Jeffrey pine trees in what is termed the Coxe-Delany burn near Floriston, burned over last summer in a forest fire.

Last year the 250 acres was seeded with grass in an experimental planting.

The seedlings for the plant, supervised by Ranger Edward E. Boehm and Fire Control Officer William Curran, were secured from the Mt. Shasta nursery. Six staff officers from headquarters of Tahoe National Forest at Nevada City, headed by Supervisor Guerdon Ellis, assisted in the work.

Twenty of the small trees were presented to the elementary school and are being set out in the school yard by the pupils under the direction of Principal James Welch.

Tarzan

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

IN SEEKING THE CREATURE WHICH HAD ATTACKED RUNDI IN THE LAKE, TARZAN DISCOVERED THE LEGENDARY DAGOMBA TREASURE AND THE BODY OF CLEVELAND'S DIVER. HE THEN RETURNED TO SHORE WITH THE BODY.

AS TARZAN CAST THE DIVER'S BODY AT CLEVELAND'S FEET AND GRIMLY ADVANCED UPON THE FRIGHTENED PAIR, CHAKA LEAPED FORWARD- AN ACCUSING FINGER LEVELED AT THE APE-MAN'S THROAT.

"TABOO!" SCREAMED CHAKA POINTING A FINGER AT THE YELLOW SERPENT ABOUT TARZAN'S NECK.

"KILL— OR ALL DIE IN THE PIT OF SNAKES!"

"THE FORBIDDEN SYMBOL." CHAKA SHRILLED. "THE SERPENT GOD HAS MARKED HIM FOR DEATH!"

UNAWARE OF THE MARK ABOUT HIS THROAT, TARZAN FAILED TO UNDERSTAND THE CHANGED FACES ABOUT HIM. FROM FRIENDSHIP THEIR EXPRESSION SUDDENLY DISPLAYED FEAR AND HATE AS ALL BUT MABULI ADVANCED UPON HIM.
